SIGHT RESTORED.-Charles W. Tanner, one of the most prominent businees men of Richmond and a member of the city council, believes that his sight has been restored, after long desight has been restored, after long de-privation, by Christian Science. Mr. Tanner has been almost blind 28 years, barely able to recognize acquaint-ancer, and went about by the use of the most powerful lenses. He has been forced to entrust much of the conduct of the de-tails of his business to others, and has been unable to read or or write with comfort. Now he uses ordinary glasses and his sight is as good as that of the average man. He says he began to and his sight is as good as that of the average man. He says he began to take the treatment July 5 from a lady in Richmood, having first understood clearly that he should surrender none of his own religious opinions. After five virits on consecutive days, at each of which the practitioner sat with a hand shading her eyes and in atsolute silence, Mr. Tanner, at her suggestion, attempted to read. He failed, but was told to make a determined effort to attempted to read. He failed, out was told to make a determined effort to read a book that night. He be-gan at 10:45 o'clock, and continued to read it until 2 a. m. He visited the scientist once more, and became con-vinced that he was cured. He now reads with perfect comfort.
